In response to Issues in RFAI - REFERENCE: AMENDED OCTOBER QUARTERLY REPORT (08/07/2014 - 09/30/2014)
RECEIVED 11/19/2014

Please find our answers to the questions contained in the above referenced RFAI; for ease of reference, where possible, we have used the numbering sequence used in the RFAI:

1.Excessive Contributions reported on report and filed 10/28/14:

•Curbelo, Teresita – The campaign received 3 checks from her and her husband, Carlos Lino Curbelo totaling $10,400 — $7800 was accidentally attributed to Teresita Curbelo and $2600 to Carlos Leno Curbelo. Copies of checks have been included – $2,600 has been reclassified to her husband Carlos Lino Curbelo. Item has been corrected in latest amendment.

•Fanjul, Jose & Fanjul Jr., Jose- father and son with the same address, item does not need to corrected.

•Leyva, Giraldo, & Leyva, Giraldo - father and son with different addresses – item does not need to corrected.

•Ortiz, Hector P., $2600 was from his son Hector Ortiz and $900 was from Hector P. Ortiz, copies of checks included. Item has been corrected in latest amendment.

•Pelaez, Pedro- $200 dollars has been attributed to his wife Cynthia Pelaez. Item has been corrected in latest amendment.

6.Memo Description

•Changed "production cost? to "commercial production cost? reflected in latest amendment.

7.Memo Items were reported on original report filed 10/15/14 and were omitted from amendment dated 10/28/14:

•Due to previously mentioned software issues, memo items that were included in the original report filed on 10.15.2014 were left off the amendment filed on 10.28.2014, Items have been corrected in latest amendment.

8.In the process of converting our data from the state provided campaign reporting software to the Aristotle Campaign Manager software, the data was corrupted resulting in the improper reporting of contributions in our October quarterly report. We became aware of the discrepancy, researched the issues, corrected the underlying data and filed an amended report on 10/28/14. Below please find a listing of the contribution that resulted in the improper reporting on original report filed on 10/15/14:
